Visit North Norfolk is the official not-for-profit destination management organisation (DMO) and visitor guide for the area.

Visit North Norfolk is North Norfolk District Council's commissioned partner to promote the north Norfolk coast and countryside and the Deep History Coast as the ideal UK holiday destination, continuing to grow the number of people visiting the area.

As a marketing organisation, Visit North Norfolk is more than just a listings site. The aim is to continue to raise the profile of north Norfolk to a national and international audience. Visit North Norfolk funds and operates the website and runs marketing campaigns promoting the area as well as the site.

As Visit North Norfolk is the official DMO for the area, all tourism businesses are represented on the website, with members receiving many more business benefits.

Opportunities to be involved in marketing and media editorial

Visit North Norfolk's marketing campaigns promote north Norfolk as a destination, highlighting the area's uniqueness and driving visitors to the website for inspiration and to book breaks. For twelve months of the year, north Norfolk is promoted to targeted audiences through online and traditional media.

Visit North Norfolk, working with North Norfolk District Council, is the official promoter of the Deep History Coast, with a dedicated marketing campaign raising awareness and driving traffic to the Visit North Norfolk website. The Where to Go in North Norfolk Attractions group is also a partner, providing a marketing budget to actively promote attractions in north Norfolk.

As well as working closely with Visit Britain, Visit North Norfolk subscribes to TravMedia – the industry's global media network, so information can be supplied to journalists directly for editorial features and press trips promoting north Norfolk and members. We also set up media visits for national journalists including the Daily Mail, The Telegraph, The Guardian, The Times, iNews, Coast Magazine, GQ, Rough Guide, Brussels Times Magazine, Greater Anglia and influencers/bloggers.

COVID-19

The Covid-19 pandemic meant businesses found themselves in a challenging and turbulent situation with changing legislation and guidance around business closures and restrictions. Visit North Norfolk provided, and continues to support, businesses through lockdowns, restricted opening and business recovery periods. Members have felt reassured and connected with an official tourism body and wider group of businesses.

- Daily industry and DCMS updates
- Communication to local MPs, local and national government
- Business support and guidance
- Changes in guidance and legislation relating to the hospitality industry
- Funding and grant opportunities
- Notification of free business training and webinars

“Your daily updates during the Covid-19 pandemic have been a lifeline. I have been across DMO communications from several sources, from destinations to counties and your support, information and analysis has blown all the others out of the water.”

“ Our guesthouse business has been a member of Visit North Norfolk for several years. We believe it's vital to be a part of our local DMO as it promotes the area to potential visitors and as a small business, we're achieving a higher profile than we would be able to alone. People need to know about north Norfolk before they look for somewhere to stay, and that's the key benefit for us.
